

COX READS 14 HARDING VIEWS ON THE LEAGUE

Democratic Nominee Pleads in Baltimore for the Covenant.

'THIS LEAGUE OR NONE'

That Is Sole Issue, He Declares in Attack on His Opponent.

DEFENDS ARTICLE X.

Industrial Depression Will Come if America Stays Out, He Says.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—Gov. Cox fought for the League of Nations to-night in the Fifth Regiment Armory, where Woodrow Wilson won the Presidential nomination in 1912, making one of the most energetic appeals of the campaign to turn Maryland, normally Democratic, from its apparent determination to join the Republican sweep.
With a large delegation of Administration officials from Washington on the stage or in the audience, the Democratic nominee trotted out all his arguments for the covenant, asserting that the issue to be decided at the coming election is simply: "This League of Nations or none." Senator Harding he bitterly attacked.

Claims Harding Reward.

Gov. Cox added spice to the speech by claiming the reward offered by Senator Harding at Jackson, Ohio, yesterday for any one who could show he had changed his attitude at any time on the League of Nations. What the reward would be, he explained, Senator Harding had failed to say, but Gov. Cox said it would be election to the Presidency on November 2.

This served as a vehicle for the presentation of what Gov. Cox asserted were fourteen different positions Senator Harding has taken on the League of Nations. It is the same list he had been using before, expanding it from time to time, starting with eight.

"Senator Harding complains bitterly he has again been misunderstood and misrepresented," Gov. Cox said. "He offers a reward to any one who will show that he has changed his position. I am going to show how he has attempted to wiggle and wobble his way into the Presidency and I claim the reward. It will be the Presidency, and it will be a victory, not for me, but for the people.
My election will not be a partisan result, but the triumph of a principle.

"In my campaign I have found a reawakening of the American conscience and a resentment at the deceit practiced by the Senatorial oligarchy, which has run away with the management of the Republican party and which nominated and controls its candidate. After asking the evidence to show his changes, Senator Harding admits those changes by the ironical assertion that he is entitled to one more in order to make it fourteen.
Now the trouble with the Senator is this —his arithmetic is wrong. He has already had fourteen changes so far as I know, because I have not yet had the opportunity to read the evening papers."

Here is the Cox List.

Then Gov. Cox read a list of what he asserted had been changed by the Republican nominee. Here they are:

1. Vote for the free reservations.
2. Vote for the Lodge reservations.
3. Then he said that if he had to do it he would not vote even for the Lodge reservations.
4. Then vote the Knox resolution for a separate peace with Germany.
5. Then he accepted the nomination on the platform which said, "The League has signally failed." 6. Then he endorsed the re-establishment of the Hague tribunal which showed its failure as expressed by Theodore Roosevelt because it had no power behind it.
7. Then he rejected the Hague tribunal.
8. Then he offered a "new plan" in the international court of justice which he learned Elihu Root was working on.
9. Then he rejected the international court of justice when he discovered what every one had known, but felt, that it was the Supreme Court of the League of Nations.
10. In his speech of September 6 he said, "Amendment or revision of reconstruction of the League covenant is still among the possibilities," and—11. In the same speech he said: "The League has now passed beyond all possibility of restoration." 12. At Des Moines he said, "Cox favors going into the League. I favor staying out. I am not interested in qualification. I am interested in rejection."
13. Returning to Mars from Des Moines he said: "I can understand why it is that the people of America don't understand what I said at Des Moines," and that he was not to be taken to mean what he said. And—14. Announced the formation of a new association of nations—which on the same day Judge Taft pronounced impossible and impracticable.

Supported by Opposing Elements.

Gov. Cox made much of the fact that Senator Harding is being supported by what he branded the two opposing elements of the Republican party, those who favor a League of Nations, as typified by William H. Taft and Elihu Root on the one side, and Senators Borah and Johnson, who oppose the League of Nations, on the other. He

Harding Waffles, Cox 'Sinkers' at Registration

FORT DODGE, Ia., Oct. 21.— Harding waffles and Cox doughnuts were served here this morning at a "registration breakfast" given by the Y. W. C. A. to new women voters to stimulate interest in registration, which began to-day. Waffles, for which Mrs. Harding is celebrated, were ordered by 107; thirty doughnuts, said to be Mrs. Cox's specialty.
Democratic women declare it wasn't a test of Harding and Cox sentiment but rather a test of waffles and doughnuts sentiment.

held a copy of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, which printed on the same page to-day reports of Senator Johnson's meeting at Hoboken and Mr. Taft's meeting at Bloomington, Ind. Over the Johnson article was the headline, "Insane Harding Rejected League." Over the Taft article was the headline, "Harding Favors League, Says Taft."
"Either Johnson is wrong or Taft is," Gov. Cox asserted, "and only Senator Harding can tell the American people which one is wrong. If Senator Harding has not given a private assurance to both men then his declarations are so ambiguous that Taft interprets them one way and Johnson another."

"It is the duty of Senator Harding to advise the American people frankly who is right—Johnson or Taft. If he fails to do it he may be regarded as an impostor, deliberately seeking to deceive the American people."

There was a vigorous defense of Article X, which Gov. Cox continued to describe as a reiteration of the Eighth Commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," and a discussion of economic advantages which he asserted would be derived under the League of Nations. He predicted that if America did not enter there would result the worst industrial depression ever experienced.

Maryland Leans to Harding.

Gov. Cox came to Baltimore from Winnington, where he delivered a morning speech in a motion picture theatre to 2,500 persons. The speech followed virtually the lines of that to-night, but he succeeded in his condemnation of Senator Harding to such an extent as to bring shouts of disapproval of the Republican nominee from some persons in the crowd.

Those impartial students of Maryland politics who are best informed declare that if the election were to be held to-day the State surely would go Republican. There is a good deal of opposition to the League of Nations in Maryland, much dissatisfaction with the Wilson Administration and strong sentiment for a change. Senator Harding in his recent speech in Baltimore made a deep impression. On top of it is a factual fight between rival Democratic leaders, all contributing to make the outlook one of deep gloom for the Cox-Roosevelt forces.

Gov. Cox will campaign to-morrow in New Jersey, with speeches at Trenton, Princeton, Jersey City and Newark.

COOLIDGE APPEALS TO N. CAROLINA FARMERS

Emphasizes Tariff and Urges Increased Production.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 21.—Gov. Coolidge completed a thirty-six hours speaking tour of North Carolina to-night with an address here, in which he directed his remarks particularly to farmers and to wage earners. He urged both to increase production.

The Republican party, he said, would endeavor "to dignify the farm, because the farm is the base of our existence," and help the farm tenant to become a farm owner.

"We shall seek to place our wage earners in a position of economic safety," he said, "and put them in the way of treatment as the partners of enterprise and of government."

In his speeches Gov. Coolidge emphasized the position of the Republican party on the tariff. He declared also for "a return to constitutional government," and denounced "the exercise of war powers by the President at this time."

The Republican party, he added, had endeavored to obtain peace under the law as well as in fact, only to be prevented from accomplishing that purpose by the President because of the President's disagreement with the Senate over the treaty.

Govs. Lowden and Morrow again denounced the League of Nations as it was submitted to the Senate by the President, charged the Administration with extravagance and called for support of the Republican party. Both were under a physician's care to-day for trouble some throats, the result of their strenuous campaigning, but they appeared to be in better condition tonight.

Virginia will be entered to-morrow, where rear platform speeches will be made during the day at Danville, South Boston, Kearsville and Burkeville. There will be a night meeting at Richmond.

FILENE DENIES MISSION.

Says He Made No Effort to Get Germany Into League.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Edward A.
Filene of Boston denied to-day that he had been "in Germany on a mission to get Germany into the League of Nations," as stated before the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.

"The statement irritates me greatly," said Mr. Filene's statement, "not so much because it is untrue, but that it hurts my pride to have such an absurd proposition attributed to me. A schoolboy knows that one vote in the league council will keep Germany or any other nation out of the league. It would be as effective to carry such a mission to Kumchatha as to Berlin."

GOV. COX TO ARRIVE IN CITY TO-NIGHT

Busy Schedule for To-morrow to Begin With Reception at Waldorf-Astoria.

WHITE PREDICTS VICTORY

Wife of Democratic Nominee to Be Guest at Dinner of Mrs. George Bass.

Returning from a flying visit to Chicago, Chairman George White of the Democratic National Committee continued to cry from the housetops yesterday that Cox and Roosevelt would win.
"This campaign has become a crusade for world peace through disarmament," said the chairman, "for truth against falsehood, for straightforwardness against double dealing and for American idealism against a policy of disastrous isolation."

"The American people are weary of the chorus of Republican croak-ing," he said, "He didn't. They will select a four square President instead of a human weathervane."

Mrs. Cox, wife of the Democratic nominee, will precede her husband to this city, arriving to-night in time to be the guest at a dinner in the Waldorf given by Mrs. George Bass, chairman of the Woman's Bureau of the National Committee.

To-morrow Mrs. Cox will attend the luncheon at the Astor, where her husband will speak, and will occupy a box at Madison Square Garden in the evening.

This noon Gov. Cox will speak at Trenton. From there he will go to Lawrenceville and Princeton, and will speak in Newark and Jersey City in the evening. From the latter engagement he will come direct to the Waldorf to spend the night.

To-morrow at 9:30 A. M. Gov. Cox will receive a delegation of men and women at the Waldorf, after which he will be in conference with his campaign managers.

He will give a short talk at a women's luncheon at the Astor Hotel at 1:30 o'clock. At 2:15 o'clock he will speak at the Marquette Club at the Waldorf. At 2:15 he will make a brief address to the school teachers of the city at the Washington Irving High School. The director of the lecture bureau of the Board of Education explains that he had invited Senator Harding to address the teachers when he came here. That trip having been given up plans are now being made to have Gov. Coolidge represent the Republican ticket.
From the high school the Democratic candidate will go to the world championship games of the Public School Athletic League at the Twenty-second Regiment Armory, 108th street and Broadway.
He will then rest at the Waldorf until evening. On the way to the Madison Square Garden meeting the candidate will stop at the Hippodrome. He will speak as soon as he reaches the Garden.

The national committee reports a tremendous demand for tickets. Doors will be opened at 7 o'clock. Reserved seats will be held until 7:15 only. Na-han Straus will be chairman. In addition to the Presidential candidate, Rabbi Stephen Wise and Miss Harriett May Mills, candidate for Secretary of State of New York, will speak.
Sunday afternoon, after conferring with Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gov. Cox will start for West Virginia.

STUDENT AVIATRIX KILLED.

Wing of Plane Collapses—Pilot Also May Die.

MENLO PARK, Cal., Oct. 21.—Frances E. Lee, a Chinese student aviatrix, was killed when she jumped from a falling airplane to-day.
John Courtney, pilot of the machine, suffered probable fatal injuries when the machine dashed to the ground. A wing of the plane collapsed, according to witnesses.
